SUPREME COURT.

October 17th.

MOTION FOR INJUNCTION. The Acting Attorney-General (Bon. J. Russell), instructed by Mesers. Bharp, Toller, and Johnson, said be appeared to apply to move for an injunction to restrain the defendants from moving away property and intermedding with fixtures and improvements from and in the premises situated on inland lot No. 725, leased by plaintiff to defendants. There is a writ filed in Court, No. 24, and Granville Sharp, the plaints in the case, is ground lesses. He demised this lot with others to Samuel Easton by indenture dated April, 1875. Mr. Easton of the first part, Mr. G. Sharp of the second part, and the International Ice. Company of the third part, entered into a deed of Jesse by which certain arrangements were made for the getting up of an ice manufactory on this lot. Mr. Easton died sometime ago, and Mr. G. Sharp claims under the lease of Easton the fixtures and the premises, and the motion is to prevent defendants from moving away certain property that he(plaintiff) contends he is entitled to under the deed of lease. Certain affidavita had been filed, and on Saturday list an interim order was obtained to restrain the defendants from taking down fixtures in the premises. The fixtures consist of hollers and ice manufacture. ing machinery. In the covenant Mr. Sharp is described as leasor, and it is set forth that the defendants shall and will at the end of the term peaceably leave, and surrender by demise the premises to the leasor or his representatives. The nature of the fixtures are not mentioned. The defendante had accepted Mr. G. Sharp and attorned to him, and he believes that he has claim upon everything on these premises, that he has a right to all the fixtures therein. He (the learned Attorney) now asked for an injunc tion until that mutt r could be argued and determined. He only asked for a provisiona lorder. His Lordship had already granted
